

Applicant	Date	Requested (NOK)	Granted (NOK)	Status	Project description
F3.01 NAMMCO Secretariat		-	101,561	Finalised	A special one-day seminar "Informed Opinion - on the hunting of marine mammals" on information problems, needs and strategies, held in Tromsø 26 February 1994.
F3.02 Milton. M. R. Freeman Canada	Nov. 1993	35,000	35,000	Finalised	A collection of IWC documents produced by Greenland with an ethnological perspective. Published in 1997 as The Anthropology of Community-based whaling in Greenland . Edited by Marc G. Stevenson, Andrew Madsen and Elaine Maloney. Publisher: Canadian Circumpolar Institute, U. of Alberta
F3.04 Dorete Bloch Faroe Islands	Jan. 1994	25,000	25,000	Finalised	Textbook published in 1997 in connection with three posters of whales, seals and terrestrial mammals in the North Atlantic in Faroese, Greenlandic, Icelandic and English.
F3.05 Arne Kalland Norway	Feb. 1994	10,000	10,000	Finalised	Travel support to the IWC 46 in connection with an international research project on marine mammal utilisation in the circumpolar north.
F3.07 Klaus Barthelmess Germany	April 1994	20,868	20,868	Finalised	Follow-up of the NAMMCO Informed Opinion Seminar. Production of the pamphlet - " Whaling Con & Pro " distributed at IWC 46.
F3.08 High North Alliance Norway	April 1994	150,000	30,000	Finalised	Reprint of the brochure " 11 Essays on Whales and Man " and printing of the brochure " Additional Essays on Whales and Man "
F3.09 Jóhann Ívarsson	May	50,000	30,000	Finalised	Production of the book " Science, Sanctions & Cetaceans, Iceland and the

Iceland	1994				Whaling Issue ". Includes a chapter on the establishment of NAMMCO. Publisher: Centre for International Studies, U. of Iceland 1994
F3.10 European Bureau for Conservation and Development (EBCD) Project leader: Despina Symons	Aug. 1994	37,000	20,000	Finalised	Production of proceedings from the EBCD organised Conference "Responsible wildlife, resource Management: Balancing biological, Economical, Cultural and Moral Considerations", held in Brussels, 29-30 November 1993
F3.11 High North Alliance Project leader: Georg Blickfeldt	Dec. 1994	185,000	130,000	Finalised	Brochure " Marine Hunters - Whaling and Sealing in the North Atlantic ". Printed in English, German and Swedish.
F3.12 Inuit Circumpolar Conference (ICC) Project leader: Milton Freeman	Dec. 1994	55,000	55,000	Finalised	Production of the book " Inuit, Whaling and Sustainability ". A book on whaling in a contemporary and historical perspective. Edited by Milton Freeman et al.
F3.13 Tore Dillingsøen Norway	Jan 1995	35,000	35,000	Finalised	Production of the poster "Whales in Norwegian waters". Printed in Norwegian and English
F3.15 "SOSIALURIN" Newspaper Faroe Islands	Sep. 1995	71,000	56,000	Finalised	"The Daily Grind" A collection of Óli Petersen cartoons from the daily Faroese newspaper "Sosialurin" shows pilot whale hunting under attack from abroad. Text in English, Danish, German, French and Icelandic.
F3.21 K. Knut Skoglund Norway	May 1997	130,000	100,000	Finalised	Documentary film on Norwegian Whaling. " Større enn kval ". In Norwegian and some with English subtitles. Knut Skoglund and Svein Andersen. Knut Skoglund Film 1998.

F5.01 High North Alliance Project leader: Rune Frøvik Norway	June 2000	100,000	100,000	Not Finalised	www.kids An educational website targeting children and youth with focus on sustainable use of marine mammals set in the larger context of environmental issues.
F5.02 Sjávarborgin - Seacity ehf. Project leader: Ævar Hardarson Iceland	June 2000	120,000	110,000	Not Finalised	Faxi the Whale - A website about whales in the North Atlantic providing information on whaling and life in rural communities that traditionally rely on harvesting whales. Folk tales will be utilised in presenting the material. In Icelandic.
F6.02 Grindamannafelagið: Faroe Islands	June 2001		20,000	Finalised	Film on Pilot Whaling giving the broader aspects of the Faroese pilot whale drive and on the preparation and storage of the whale meat in the Faroe Islands. Information tool national and international - subtitles in English and German. Support for subtitles.
F6.04 Nordic Houses in Faroes Project leader: Birger Kruse Faroe Islands	June 2001	DKK 115,000	75,000	Finalised	The travelling exhibit "Hunters of the North" . The exhibition explores how hunting and fishing activities have had an impact on the formation of the West Nordic countries and how and why these activities continue to play and active role in the various cultures.
F6.07 Seal craft AS Project leader: Gry Fors Norway	June 2001	83,500	30,000	Finalised	A book prospectus with focus on the utilisation of seals in Greenland, Iceland and Norway, exploring the importance of seals through history, culturally and as a source of nutrition. To ensure that the existing knowledge on how to use and prepare seal products are not lost and to provide inspiration on how to further utilise and develop seal products.
F6.09 Skólavefurinn ehf. Project leader: Skúli Thorarensen Iceland	June 2001	60,000	50,000	Finalised	The Atlantic Ocean - lifeline of the north Teaching material for children 10-13 years of age about marine mammals in the North Atlantic, for use in elementary schools and for individuals in Iceland. The project will enhance the understanding of the rational utilisation of marine mammals and of the ecosystem. The product will be accessible on the web and in textbook form . It will be interactive, easily adaptable to incorporate new knowledge and written in the local languages.

F7.01 Britt Johansen Norway	June 2002	10,000	10,000	Not Finalised	Production and publication of the book " Selfangst og selfangerliv; Nordlands bidrag fra tidligere tider og frem til i dag ". The aim is to document the history of sealing in Nordland county in Norway. In Norwegian.
F7.02 Mr Sigurður Friðleifsson and Mr Brynjólfur Bjarnason Iceland	June 2002	62,000	62,000	Finalised	Interactive computer program to spread knowledge on marine mammals. Aimed at primary- and secondary school, museums, whale watching sites and tourist information centres. Will be translated into English, Norwegian, Greenlandic, Icelandic and Faroese.
F7.03 Arne Kalland Norway	June 2002	30,000	30,000	Not Finalised	Publication of book manuscript : Marine Mammals in Northern Cultures . Addresses the roles sealing and whaling plays for people along the North Atlantic inc. East-Canada. How marine mammals are hunted and utilised, conflicting perceptions of nature and the international campaigns against hunting as well as responses these have triggered.
F8.04 Jan Arve Gjøvik Norway	June 2003		92,600	Finalised	The writing of a report for the general audience on ethical argumentation in support of marine mammal hunting. The report is in Norwegian only.

PROJECTS THAT HAVE BEEN FUNDED BUT WITHDRAWN

Applicant	Date	Requested (NOK)	Granted (NOK)	Status	Project description
F5.03 POLARIA: Exhibition on Marine Mammals Norway	June 2000	61,000	45,000	Withdrawn	Financial support withdrawn in December 2001 due to no project progress.
F6.10 Kit Kovacs: Marine Mammals of the Northwest Atlantic – information package. Norway	June 2001	25,000	25,000	Withdrawn	Marine Mammals of the Northwest Atlantic - information package An information package, to be prepared at the Norwegian Polar Institute, aimed at boat-based tourists primarily visiting Svalbard, but also other destinations in the NAMMCO member countries. The book-let would provide general information such as a biological profile, identification features, diet, range and status about the marine mammals and their harvest and use in the North Atlantic.
F7.04 Scanagri Denmark AS Project leader: Thor Hjarsen Greenland/Denmark	June 2002	110,200	85,000	Withdrawn	"Use of Marine Mammals in Greenland - Information for Tourists and Travellers". The material (leaflets, background sheets and web-based information) will be available in Danish, English and German